

Google's Offices Discovered To Contain The Single Largest Collection Of "Assholes" On Earth

By Aver Lee

Washington, DC – Aside from their smug attitudes, their constant embroilments in sexual scandals and hooker controversies, the bizarre deaths connected with Google employees and their unbridled insistence on controlling U.S. Government policy, new revelations expose the ass-holiness of Google like never before.

The following links demonstrate a clear corporate mission, on the part of the entire management staff and major shareholders of Google, to dive as deep into the dark crevasse of hell as possible. While most of the public has come to realize that Google is, at least, a do-over of the Franklin Roosevelt "Business Plot" that Smedley Butler over-threw, the new reality is far worse.

Google takes new fedora wearing, BS-bearded Millennial's and puts them through a Scientology-like cultish "mindfulness" indoctrination designed to germinate new assholes.

Since Google has now been uncovered as the provider of almost all of the staffing for the American White House, one has to wonder if that fact implies that the current White House is "full of assholes" as suggested by Donald Trump.

Indeed "ASS-HOLE-OSITY" is now considered to be the greatest threat to U.S. Democracy. Could this dire situation be resolved by a simple White House De-asshole-ization via the eradication of every Google shill employee in the U.S. Government?
